CODE OF CONDUCT FOR WORKING WITH CHILDREN

1. Aims, Scope and Principles

This guidance document describes the standards of conduct and practice that the Brighter Futures Learning Partnership Trust (The Trust) staff and volunteers should follow when working with children. It is designed to complement other advice or codes of conduct produced by employers or national bodies, not to replace or take priority over them.

By creating this policy, we aim to ensure our Trust provides an environment where everyone is safe, happy and treated with respect. Whilst this policy covers a wide range of situations, it is recognised that it cannot cover every eventuality, however the principles contained within it must apply in every circumstance.

Many of the principles in this code of conduct are based on the Teachers' Standards and therefore, this policy should be read in conjunction with these standards.

School staff have an influential position in school, and, will act as role models for students/pupils by consistently demonstrating high standards of behaviour and dress. We expect that all teachers will act in accordance with the personal and professional behaviours set out in the Teacher Standards. We expect all support staff, governors and volunteers to also act with personal and professional integrity, respecting the safety and well-being of others.

2. Legislation and Guidance

In line with statutory safeguarding guidance 'Keeping Children Safe in Education', we should have a staff code of conduct which covers acceptable use of technologies, staff/student/pupil relationships and communication, including the use of social media. This policy is linked to each school's safeguarding, e-safety, acceptable use of technology policies.

This policy also links to the Trust's Funding Agreement and the Articles of Association.

3. General Obligations

All adults who have contact with children and young people, in their work, have a legal and moral duty to keep them safe, protecting them from sexual, physical and/or emotional harm. The duty that rests on an individual is to ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to ensure the welfare of a child or young person is paramount.

Staff will, therefore:

- Keep children safe by clarifying which behaviours constitute safe practice and which behaviours should be avoided;
- Assist adults working with children to work safely and responsibly and to monitor their own standards and practice;
- Support managers in setting clear expectations of behaviour and/or codes of practice relevant to the services being provided;
- Give a clear message that unlawful or unsafe behaviour is unacceptable and that, where appropriate, disciplinary or legal action will be taken;
- Support safer recruitment practice;
- Minimise the risk of misplaced or malicious allegations made against adults who work with children;
- Reduce the incidence of positions of trust being abused or misused.

It is important that staff are role models for students/pupils. They will:

- Maintain high standards in their attendance and punctuality;
- Never use inappropriate or offensive language in school;
- Show tolerance and respect for the rights of others;
- Not undermine fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs;
- Express personal beliefs in a way that will not overly influence students/pupils, and will not exploit students'/pupils' vulnerability or might lead them to break the law;
- Understand the statutory frameworks they must act within.

Failure to follow the code of conduct may result in disciplinary action being taken, as set out in the Trust's disciplinary procedures.

Please note that this code of conduct is not exhaustive. If situations arise that are not covered by this code, staff will use their professional judgement and always in the best interest of the Trust and its students/pupils.

4. Safeguarding

Staff have a duty to safeguard students/pupils from harm, and to report any concerns they have. This includes physical, emotional and sexual abuse, or neglect.

Staff will familiarise themselves with their school's safeguarding policy and procedures and the Prevent initiative, ensuring they are aware of the processes to follow if they have concerns about a child.

Safeguarding policies and procedures are available in each staff room and from the school admin office. New staff will also be given copies on arrival to the Trust as part of the induction process.

5. Reporting incidents

Staff should report any safeguarding concerns about another colleague's behaviour to their Headteacher. If there are safeguarding concerns about the Headteacher or another member of the Trust, these should be reported to the CEO. If there are safeguarding concerns about the CEO, these should be reported to the Chair of the Trust by emailing Mrs Keogan, the Executive Personal Assistant to the CEO (keoganc@hungerhillsschool.com).

In cases where there is an allegation or risk of harm to a child this must be reported to the Child Protection Officer in school.

6. Diversity

At all times consideration needs to be given to the diverse needs of staff and children. Aspects of gender, culture or religion may be relevant when considering the nature of allegations or appropriateness of communications or physical interventions.

7. The Trust's Commitment

The Trust will ensure:

- Appropriate safeguarding and child protection policies and procedures are in place in all areas that undertake work with children, that they are continually monitored and reviewed and made easily accessible to all staff;

- The safe practice of staff is continually promoted through supervision and training;
- Staff have readily available access to senior management or other emergency contacts;

- Guidance is readily available to both adults and children;
- A culture of openness and support is fostered;
- Readily known systems are in place for situations and concerns, from either party, to be raised and recorded and for their outcomes to be analysed in order to review procedures and working practices;

It is understood that social media can play an important part in communication between the School and students, parents/carers; however, there is also a need to ensure it is used in an appropriate and safe way. Before any member of staff sets up a resource such as a student blog space or a school Twitter account, they must seek permission from the Headteacher and they should ensure that appropriate steps are taken to make such social media ‘private’ so that only people they approve can access it. The member of staff will then be responsible for the posts made on the site and for moderating the content from other users/contributors.

13. Extremism, Radicalisation and Political Views

The Trust values freedom of speech and the expression of beliefs/ideology as a fundamental right underpinning our society’s values. Both students and staff have the right to speak freely and voice their opinions. However, freedom comes with responsibility and free speech that is designed to manipulate the vulnerable or that incites or leads to violence or harm to others goes against the moral principles in which freedom of speech is valued. Free speech is not an unqualified privilege; it is subject to laws and policies governing equality, human rights, community safety and community cohesion.

The threat from terrorism in the United Kingdom may include the exploitation of vulnerable people to involve them in terrorism or in activity in support of extremism and terrorism. The normalisation of extreme views may also make children and young people vulnerable to future manipulation and exploitation. The Trust is clear that this exploitation and radicalisation should be viewed as a safeguarding concern.

The Trust recognises that extremism and exposure to extremist materials and influences can lead to poor outcomes for students and so this should be addressed as a safeguarding concern as set out in this policy. We also recognise that if we fail to challenge extremist views we are failing to protect our students.

Extremists of all persuasions aim to develop destructive relationships between different communities by promoting division, fear and mistrust of others based on ignorance or prejudice and thereby limiting the life chances of young people. Education is a powerful weapon against this; equipping young people with the knowledge, skills and critical thinking, to challenge and debate in an informed way. Therefore, the Trust will provide a broad and balanced curriculum, delivered by skilled professionals, so that our students are enriched, understand and become tolerant of difference and diversity and also to ensure that they thrive, feel valued and not marginalized.

The Trust will closely follow any locally agreed procedures as set out by Doncaster Metropolitan Borough Council for safeguarding individuals vulnerable to extremism and radicalisation.

The Trust have determined "British Values" to be:

- Democracy
- The rule of law
- Individual liberty
- Mutual respect
- Tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs

The Trust aim to develop and nurture these by:

- Planning assemblies and curriculum programmes where core ethical values and beliefs are considered.
- Well-structured PSHE curriculum delivered in tutor time across all age ranges throughout the academic year. The PSHE programmes will address fundamental British Values and the Core Values. These programmes will equip students with a sound understanding of risk and with the knowledge and skills necessary to make safe and informed decisions.

All adults have a duty to keep children safe and protect them from radicalisation (Prevent Duty). The Trust forbids the promotion of partisan political views in the teaching of any subject.

Staff must:

- Ensure that they act appropriately in terms of their political behaviour, the views they express and the use of school resources should not be used for party political purposes.

14. Monitoring Arrangements

This policy will be reviewed every year but can be revised as needed in line with any changing legislation. It will be ratified by the Trust Board.
